

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. It has greatly improved my time at home, where I used to receive 10-15 telemarketer calls per day, now I receive only 1 or 2 a week, a huge improvement. Please do not pre-empt the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law!